GRIFFIN SNIDER

Playwright

Griffin Snider attends Stow-Munroe Falls High School. His favorite food is the steak burrito at Chipotle. He enjoys swimming, watching movies and traveling. Involved with CADA since 2012, Griffin lives in Munroe Falls with his family, including his dog Dorsett.

JORDAN EUELL

Director

Jordan Euell is a comedian and writer who has worked with CADA since 2014. He recently graduated from Kent State with a BS in Digital Media Production with a Theatre Minor. He loves making people laugh and sharing his love for writing with others. He teaches Writer's Room: Mythic Quests and Fantasy and was the director of Total Newsense: A Murder Mystery Podcast.

DEBRA MAHER

Debra Maher is back and better than ever! Born and raised in Brooklyn, she is a New York girl. Past roles include Psyche (On Metamorphoses), White Queen (Alice in Wonderland Adapted), Puck (A Midsummer Night's Dream), Michelle (The Quest for Stardom and Space), and Juliet (Romeo and Juliet). She also is a consultant at NYU for Tandon's Disability Studies class. She loves meeting and working with the students each year. Thank you to Camila and Gabbi for believing in her always. Love to my Aunt Sue!

SCOTT HUDSON

Scott R. Hudson is an actor from Akron, Ohio. He has been with Theatre on the Spectrum since September 2018. His favorite production that he has appeared in is Cool Kids on the Tube. He is a movie buff with his own video blog. You can find his podcasts on The Center for Applied Drama and Autism YouTube channel under "Scott Hudson Movie Buff." One day, Scott would like to act as a superhero and create his own musical. He also would love to become a DJ and write his own comic book.

MARKIA CARTER

Markia Carter is an actress and advocate who loves seeking the most out of life! She is ready to take on all life has to offer. She grew up in Coney Island. Theatre credits include Eurydice (On Metamorphoses), Cheshire Cat (Alice in Wonderland Adapted) and Balthasar (Romeo and Juliet). Markia, alongside other actors, is developing a documentary theatre project based on her lived experiences. Markia would like to thank everyone for all the love and support. She would like to dedicate her performance to her favorite person Papa Larry.

RUBEN RYAN

Ruben Ryan earned his B.A. in Theatre Studies from Kent State University and has taught improv to children and adults of all abilities for many years. He is the co-founder of Just Go With It (a long-form improv group based out of Akron) and is currently Creative Director for Point of No Return Improv. Ruben is excited to bring his years of theatre experience to the table in the expansion of his role at CADA and looks forward to continuing to help bring joy, compassion, and entertainment to all those he works for and with.

MORGAN PATIPA

Morgan Patipa is a graduate of the University of Central Florida and a rising 2L at Stetson University College of Law. When she is not on stage performing, you will find Morgan training in dance, voice, and acting, studying, binge-watching Netflix, hanging out with friends and family, tutoring, and listening to music. Some of Morgan's past credits include Sol Train, The Jungle Book, and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. Morgan would like to thank her family for supporting her dreams! A massive thank you to our wonderful director and creative team!

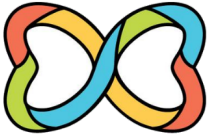

BRANDY BURKE

Brandy is excited to be in her first production with the Center for Applied Drama and Autism. She has been in theater for three years and looks forward to many more.
